

Afghan Crisis Fund Grant Application

The Kent Community Foundation's Afghan Crisis Fund is designed to provide funding for IRS nonprofit organizations supporting families and individuals in the Greater Kent/Covington community area, providing food, meals, and other critical resources during the Afghan Crisis.

The need in our community is urgent and the Kent Community Foundation expects to promptly distribute available grant funds. In turn, we expect the grants to be promptly utilized to serve families.

Nonprofits are encouraged to promptly submit grant proposals. Grant applications are evaluated on an "as needed" basis. Grant will be issued regularly until all funds are exhausted.
